ACTIVITY 3: What is Living Generously?

OBJECTIVE

To identify specific ways students can live generously through giving time, talent, and treasure. To identify the causes or needs that students feel passionate about.

This worksheet follows events that took place in the “Time, Talent, Treasure: Living Generously” video. Students will answer questions about how Jay, Maricruz, and Ariana gave their time, talent, and treasure to make a difference in their community.

1. View (or review) the video, “Time, Talent, Treasure: Living Generously” with students.
2. Pass out copies of the What is Living Generously? Worksheet and the Living Generously Activity Page to each student. Students will write answers to Questions 1, 2, 3, and 4 on the Living Generously Activity Pages.
3. Lead students through the worksheet. Call on volunteers to read aloud each paragraph description and question. Give students time to write their answers before moving to the next question.
4. For Question 5, pass out the What Will You Share? activity sheet.

ANSWER KEY

1. How can you find needs in your community? Use the “Living Generously Activity Page” to make a list of NEEDS.

Students will list needs they have observed or know about for their home, neighborhood, and greater community.

ENRICHMENT: Assign students to research the needs question by interviewing parents and siblings, neighbors, and local nonprofit organizations to determine actual needs.

2. What are you passionate about? Use the “Living Generously Activity Page” to make a list of your PASSIONS and INTERESTS.

Students will list at least one passion/interest under each category: “I like to...” “I’m good at...” “I’m interested in...”

DISCUSSION PROMPT: Why is it important to find something you are passionate about to focus your talents on?

3. Review your list of NEEDS on the “Living Generously Activity Page.” Circle items that you can use your TIME to help with.

Students will circle the needs that they can help by giving their time in volunteering.

DISCUSSION PROMPT: Why is volunteering to help others a good use of your time?

- 4. Review your list of NEEDS on the “Living Generously Activity Page.” Draw a rectangle around items that you can use your TALENT to help with.

Students will draw rectangles around the needs that they can help by sharing their talents.

DISCUSSION PROMPT: How do you feel when you imagine yourself using your talent to help with one of the needs on your list?

- 5. Review your list of NEEDS on the “Living Generously Activity Page.” Draw a heart around items that you can use your TREASURE to help with. Students will draw hearts around the needs that they can help by sharing their treasure.

DISCUSSION PROMPT: How do you feel about giving away items that were once special to you? How do you think children who receive your used items feel when they receive these gifts?

- 6. Match NEEDS with your PASSIONS and INTERESTS to find SOLUTIONS. Use the “Living Generously Activity Page” to list at least three NEEDS that students personally care about and ways they can use their TIME, TALENT, or TREASURE to help.

- 7. How can you teach family and friends how to use their time, talent and treasure to live generously?

This is an opportunity for class discussion to dig a little deeper. Students have thought about ways they can individually make a difference.

DISCUSSION PROMPTS:

- How can you influence others to get involved to make an even bigger impact?
- What is collaboration? How does collaboration make our efforts to help more effective?
- If you could change one thing in the world for better, what would it be?

TIME, TALENT, TREASURE: LIVING GENEROUSLY

1. Jay, Maricruz, and Ariana give their time, talent and treasure to live generously. It makes them feel good and helps their community. They think of other's needs and do what they can to be helpful. First, they determine what kind of help is needed. They observe their home environments, walk around their neighborhood, and talk with people in their community. Then they create the list of needs that they discover.

House/Family Needs	NEIGHBORHOOD Needs	Community Needs
Wash Dishes/Cleaning	Gardening	Items: Clothing, Toys, Food, Books
Help brother with homework	Picking up litter	Volunteers
Take out trash	Mow lawns	Money: Animal Shelter, Community Organizations
Laundry	Rake leaves	Connection: Senior Citizen Pen Pals

How can you find needs in your community? Use the "Living Generously Activity Page" to make a list of NEEDS.

2. Next, Jay, Maricruz and Ariana consider what they are passionate about. They list ideas of what is important and interesting to each of them.

Jay	MARICRUZ	ARIANA
Cooking/Baking	Reading/Math	Art/Music
Helping Animals	Helping Senior Citizens	Helping children
Spending time outside	Soccer	Video Games/Technology
Spending time with friends	Spending time with friends	Spending time with friends

What are you passionate about? Use the "Living Generously Activity Page" to make a list of your PASSIONS and INTERESTS.

3. Jay, Maricruz, and Ariana discover ways in which they can use their TIME to help. They start at their homes. Maricruz helps her brother with his homework. Jay does laundry. Ariana does the dishes. Helping feels so good that on Saturday mornings they walk through their neighborhood picking up trash and helping neighbors with outdoor chores. They collect donations and volunteer to pack food for people in need. They even organize a Living Generously Day to encourage neighbors and friends to participate.

Review your list of NEEDS on the "Living Generously Activity Page." Circle items that you can use your TIME to help with.

4. Jay, Maricruz, and Ariana also have TALENTS that can be used to live generously. Jay combines his talent for baking with his passion for animals by holding a bake sale. He donates the money that he makes to the animal shelter. Maricruz uses her artistic skills to design cards that she and her friends use to write to senior citizens. Ariana plays music at the children's hospital to entertain the patients, visitors and staff.

Review your list of NEEDS on the "Living Generously Activity Page." Draw a rectangle around items that you can use your TALENT to help with.

5. Jay, Maricruz, and Ariana discover that they have TREASURE that can help others. They collect toys that they no longer play with, clothes that are too small, and books that they no longer read. Then they donate these items to organizations that help others.

Jay, Maricruz and Ariana also learn that they can donate money to help. Whenever they receive money for special occasions or earn money doing chores, they put some aside for others in a "Sharing Jar." They then donate their Sharing money to causes that are important to them. Jay donates money to an animal rescue. Maricruz donates to a local library, and Ariana donates money to help pay for instruments and music lessons for those who can't afford them.

Review your list of NEEDS on the "Living Generously Activity Page." Draw a heart around items that you can use your TREASURE to help with.

6. Inspired by Jay, Maricruz and Ariana, soon the entire neighborhood is working together to find opportunities to share their TIME, TALENT, and TREASURE. Living generously brings the entire community together, and that makes everyone feel good.

Review your list of NEEDS on the "Living Generously Activity Page." List at least three of the NEEDS that you care about the most. Beside each of these NEEDS write how you can use your TIME, TALENT, or TREASURE to help.

LIVING GENEROUSLY
